MOV CYCLING TOURS

Vancouverism by Bicycle

"Vancouverism" is a combination of urban design, architecture, and city planning, resulting in high-density, urban living. Vancouver has more than doubled its downtown population in the past two decades, bucking the trend of many other North American cities.

Join us for guided 2-hour tours that track the history of Vancouverism, with stops in the West End, Yaletown, Southeast False Creek, and Granville Island. Saturdays at 10am, Jul 18 - Aug 22. $45

MOV Members Promotion - the first five members to email will receive a free tour on Jul 18.

MOV STUDIO

Ian Wallace My Heroes in the Streets

A suite of ten compelling photographs by one of the pioneering forces behind the city's renowned conceptual art practices since the late 1960s, Ian Wallace.
