MOV NEWS

Bambulance Project

The Bambulance Project is up for a prestigious INDEX:Award. Winner announced Aug 28.

The Bambulance, a bicycle-pulled stretcher made primarily from strong bamboo, was designed by Vancouver's Niki Dun of the Design for Development Society in response to the need for low-cost, practical, and sustainable solutions for medical transportation in the developing world. > more info

See the Bambulance in the Velo-City exhibit (thru Sept 7).
